

BC Pension Corporation Appoints New Vice President, Client Services

VICTORIA – The British Columbia Pension Corporation is pleased to announce the appointment of Kevin Olineck as Vice President, Client Services.

Mr. Olineck comes to the BC Pension Corporation from Alberta Pensions Services Corporation, where he served as Vice President, Pension Services. In addition to his time in public sector pension administration, Mr. Olineck has several years' experience in the financial services sector at Canada Life Assurance/Crown Life Insurance. There, he held management roles within the Pension and Investment Management Division.

"Kevin has a deep understanding of pension administration and is especially strong in service to members and employers," says Laura Nashman, BC Pension Corporation CEO. "He is a strategic thinker and innovator while at the same time maintaining an appreciation for the operational issues in the Client Services division. Kevin knows the BC Pension Corporation well through his professional networking and has a high regard for our organization."

"The BC Pension Corporation's reputation for excellent customer service is well known across Canada, and that makes this a very exciting opportunity for me," says Mr. Olineck. "I'm honoured to receive this position, and with my background at Alberta's Pensions Services Corporation and in the financial services sector, I'm looking forward to making a strong contribution here."

Mr. Olineck's vice presidency is effective May 4, 2009.

The Pension Corporation is one of Canada's largest pension benefit administrators, serving the boards of trustees for the largest public sector pension plans in British Columbia and representing over 440,000 active and retired plan members and more than 800 plan employers. The corporation administers the pension plans for College, Members of the Legislative Assembly, Municipal, Public Service, Teachers' and WorkSafeBC.
